

11:30-13:30

H-763

Session A: New Relations of Production, Consumption and Exchange in the 21st Century. Innovative Double Movements or Adaptation to Market Driven Globalization? (1)

Chair: Satoshi Ikeda. (Concordia University, Montréal, QC, Canada).

Ashok Kumbamu. (Ph.D. Sociology, University of Alberta, Edmonton, AB, Canada). Subaltern Strategies and Polanyi's Double Movement: A Critical Analysis of Autonomous Local Community Building Initiatives in India.

Mike Levien. (Ph.D. Sociology, University of California at Berkeley, California, USA). Contemporary 'Counter-movements' against Neoliberal Globalization: Polanyi and India's National Alliance of People's Movements.

Meltem Yilmaz Sener. (Ph.D. Department of Sociology, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, Illinois, USA). Embracing the Counter Movement through World Bank Projects.

Mohsen Al Attar. (University of Auckland, Auckland, New Zealand). The End of Neoliberalism? When Movements Buck the Market.

11:30-13:30

H-767

Session B: The Contribution of Karl Polanyi to Contemporary Theoretical Debates in the Social Sciences and Humanities (2) (Simultaneous translation)

Chair: David Tandy. (University of Tennessee, Tennessee, USA).

Katherine C. Donahue. (Plymouth State University, Plymouth, NH, USA). Fictitious Commodities and the Social Imaginary. The Relevance of Karl Polanyi's Thought to the 21st Century.

Lee MacLean. (Carleton University, Ottawa, ON, Canada). Karl Polanyi's Teaching about Capitalism as the Basis of a new Conceptualization of Feminist Theory.

Richard H. Robbins. (State University of New York at Plattsburgh, Plattsburgh, USA). Polanyi's Paradox Redux: Economists and Anthropologists Encounter Market Externalities.

Jean-Michel Servet. (Institut universitaire de hautes études internationales et du développement (IHEID), Geneva, Switzerland). Relecture d'un principe polanyien: la réciprocité.

13:30-14:30

Lunch – Hall Building, 12th Floor

Afternoon Sessions

14:30-16:30

H-763

Session A: Fictitious Commodities. Nature, Health, and Money

Chair: Keith Hart. (Goldsmiths, University of London, London, UK).

Marina Assandri. (Consultant, Deutsche Gesellschaft für Technische ZUSAammen Arbeit and Project PNUD ARG/06/008: Construcción de Alianzas Estratégicas para la consolidación del Programa de Acción Nacional de Lucha contra la Desertificación en Argentina, Córdoba, Argentina), and Javier de Pascuale (M.A. Public Administration, Instituto de Investigación y Formación, Universidad Nacional de Córdoba and Cooperativa de Trabajo diario comercio y justicia, Córdoba, Argentina). The State: Between Desertification and Maximizing Incomes.

Kan-Lin Hsu. (National Cheng Kung University, Tainan City, Taiwan, R.O.C.). Economic Fiction of Health as Utility: A Polanyian Approach to the Emerging Lifestyle-Medical Market.

Richard Moore. (Ohio State University, Ohio, USA), and Matt J. Mariola. (Ph.D. Program, Rural Sociology, Ohio State University, Ohio, USA). The Market for Pollution: A Polanyian Perspective on Environmental Governance.

Gökçer Özgür and Hüseyin Özel. (Hacettepe University, Ankara, Turkey). Money as a Fictitious Commodity in the Age of Globalization.

14:30-16:30

H-767

Session B: The Contribution of Karl Polanyi to Contemporary Theoretical Debates in the Social Sciences and Humanities (3) (Simultaneous translation)

Chair: Jean-Louis Laville. (Laboratoire interdisciplinaire pour la sociologie économique and Conservatoire National des Arts et Métiers, Paris, France).

Sylvie Constantinou. (Independent Researcher, France). Socialisme praticable et fonctionnement des entreprises.

Susan Johnson. (University of Bath, Bath, UK). Markets and Wellbeing as Instituted Processes.

Stefan Kesting. (Auckland University of Technology, Auckland, New Zealand). The Relevance of The Great Transformation for the Debate on Varieties of Capitalism.

Midori Wakamori. (Tokyo Metropolitan University, Tokyo, Japan). Karl Polanyi's Research Agenda toward The Livelihood of Man.

16:30-16:45

Health Break

16:45-18:45

H-767

Conference Plenary Session
The Relevance of Karl Polanyi for the 21st Century
Open to the General Public Free of Charge - (Simultaneous translation)

Chair: David Graham. (Provost and Vice-President, Concordia University, Montréal, QC, Canada).

Giovanni Arrighi. (The Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Maryland, USA). Reading Polanyi in Beijing.

Theotonio Dos Santos. (UNESCO-UNU Chair in Réseau sur l'Economie globale et le développement durable, Universidade Cândido Mendes, Instituto de Humanidades, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil and Vice President, Political and Ethical Knowledge on Economic Activities, PEKEA). Les défis de la mondialisation en Amérique Latine et en Asie.

Mihaly Simai. (Hungarian Academy of Science, Budapest, Hungary). The Global Development Process in the Turmoil of the 21st Century.

18:45-20:15

Location to be determined

Cocktail reception for conference participants

Wednesday, December 10, 2008

Morning sessions

09:00- 11:15

H-763

Session A: Debat Théorique Sur L'économie Sociale et Solidaire (Simultaneous translation)

Chair: Daniel Salée. (Concordia University, Montréal, QC, Canada).

Christine Andoux. (Laboratoire interdisciplinaire pour la sociologie économique, Conservatoire national des arts et métiers, Paris, France). Les dispositifs de co-production des savoirs entre chercheurs et acteurs de la société civile: formes de savoirs et d'engagement.

José Luís Coraggio. (University of General Sarmiento, Buenos Aires, Argentina). The Convergence of Latin American Social and Solidarity Economy with the Thought of Karl Polanyi.

Laurent Gardin. (Université de Valenciennes et du Hainaut Cambrésis, Cambrai and Laboratoire interdisciplinaire pour la sociologie économique, Conservatoire National des Arts et Métiers, Paris, France). La réciprocité et l'économie solidaire.

Margie Mendell. (Concordia University, Montréal, QC, Canada). The Social Economy. Challenging the Dominant Paradigm.

Martin Petitclerc. (Université du Québec à Montréal, Montréal, QC, Canada). L'association dans une société marchande. Réflexion historique sur la culture et l'économie de marché.

09:00- 11:15

H-767

Session B: Polanyi and Comparative Social Thought. (1) (Simultaneous translation)

Chair: Pat Devine. (University of Manchester, Manchester, UK).

Gregory Baum. (McGill University, Montréal, QC, Canada). Religion and Development: Revisiting Max Weber and Karl Polanyi.

Marcin Grodzki. (Ph.D. Program. Economics, State University of New York in Binghamton, New York, USA). Toward a Substantivist View of Empirical Economy, Capitalism and Markets: Reappraisal of Polanyi's Contribution in Light of Fernand Braudel's Re-conceptualization.

Andrea Migone. (Simon Fraser University, Vancouver, BC, Canada). Embedded Markets: A Dialogue between F.A. Hayek and Karl Polanyi.

Hüseyin Özel and Derya Güler Aydın. (Hacettepe University, Ankara, Turkey). Polanyi and Schumpeter on the Contemporary Market System.

Paul Sabourin. (Université de Montréal, Montréal, QC, Canada) and Benoît Michaud. (Université d'Alberta, Edmonton, AB, Canada). Totalité et Économie: La Lecture Par K. Polanyi de L'expérience Industrielle de Robert Owen.

11:15–11:30

Health Break

11:30-13:00

H-767

Plenary: The Renaissance of Development Studies

Chair: Mel Watkins. (University of Toronto, Toronto, ON, Canada).

Björn Hettne. (University of Gothenburg, Gothenburg, Sweden). Development Discourses and Polanyian Transformations. The Renaissance of Development Studies?

Kari Polanyi-Levitt. (McGill University and Karl Polanyi Institute of Political Economy, Concordia University, Montréal, QC, Canada). International Development Studies as World History.

Richard Sandbrook. (University of Toronto, Toronto, ON, Canada). Neoliberalism versus Neopatrimonialism: The 'Double Movement' and Developmental Challenges in Africa.

13:00 – 14:30

Lunch – Hall Building, 12th Floor

Afternoon Sessions

14:30-16:30

H-763

Session A: Economy and Democracy at the Beginning of the 21st Century (Simultaneous translation)

Chair: Jean-Michel Servet. (Institut universitaire de hautes études internationales et du développement (IHEID), Geneva, Switzerland).

Jean-Marc Fontan. (Université du Québec à Montréal, Montréal, QC, Canada), Juan-Luis Klein (Université du Québec à Montréal, Montréal, QC, Canada), and Diane-Gabrielle Tremblay. (Université du Québec, Montréal, QC, Canada). Pour une théorie générale de la société d'inspiration polanyienne

Chris Hann. (Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology, Halle (Saale), Germany). Karl Polanyi and Reform Socialism.

Marcel Paret and Mike Levien. (University of California-Berkeley, Berkeley, California, USA). A Second Double Movement? Polanyian Insights on Global Responses to Neoliberalism.

Wonik Kim. (Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, LA, USA). Neoliberalization and 'Double Movement' in East Asia.

14:30-16:30

H-767

Session B: New Relations of Production, Consumption and Exchange in the 21st Century. Innovative Double Movements or Adaptation to Market Driven Globalization? (2) (Simultaneous translation)

Chair: Chantal Maillé. (Concordia University, Montréal, QC, Canada).

Denis Harrison. (Université du Québec à Montréal, Montréal, QC, Canada). Social Innovation and Social Economy. The Polanyi Legacy.

Frederic Lesemann. (INRS-Urbanisation, Culture et Société, Montréal, QC, Canada). Qualifications, haute qualification, compétences et 'nouvelles compétences' dans les secteurs de production associés à l'économie de la connaissance.

Fumitaka Wakamori. (Kansai University, Osaka, Japan). Habitation versus Improvement in the Age of Knowledge-Based Economy.

Yasar Aydin. (Ph.D. Program, Politics and Economy, University of Hamburg, Hamburg, Germany). Embedding and Disembedding: Theory of Welfare State by Karl Polanyi.

16:30-16:45

Health Break

16:45-18:45

H-767

Conference Plenary Session
Le rôle stratégique des entreprises québécoise d'économie publique et sociale dans le domaine de la finance
Open to the General Public Free of Charge (Simultaneous translation)

Chair: Benôit Levesque. (CIRIEC International and Université du Québec à Montréal. Montréal, QC, Canada).

Mario Tremblay. (Vice-président aux affaires publiques et communications, Fonds de solidarité FTQ, Montréal, QC, Canada).

Léopold Beaulieu. (Président-directeur general, FONDACTION, le Fonds de développement de la CSN pour la coopération et l'emploi, Montréal, QC, Canada).

Paul Ouellet. (Coordonnateur general, Caisse d'économie solidaire Desjardins, Québec, QC, Canada).

Claude Carbonneau. (Vice-président des coopératives et entreprises de l'économie sociale, Investissement Québec, Québec, QC, Canada).

Jacques Charest. (Directeur general, Fiducie du Chantier de l'économie sociale, Montréal, QC, Canada).

19:30- 22:00

Conference Banquet

Keynote Speaker: Nancy Neamtan (President, Chantier de l'économie sociale, Montréal, QC, Canada). Building a Movement for Economic Democracy: the Quebec Experience.

Venue: Restaurant le Pavillon, Parc Mont Royal, 2000 Remembrance Rd., Montréal.

Thursday, December 11, 2008

Morning Sessions

09:00-11:00

H-767

Plenary: The Political Economy of the 21st Century. A Polanyi Framework of Analysis (Simultaneous translation)

Chair: Kari Polanyi Levitt. (McGill University and Karl Polanyi Institute of Political Economy, Concordia University, Montréal, QC, Canada).

Alain Caillé. (Université de Paris X, and La Revue du MAUSS, Paris, France). Un politique polanyienne est-elle possible aujourd'hui et comment?

Juan José Palacios. (University of Guadalajara, Guadalajara, Mexico). Picturing the Emerging World Order in the Early 21st Century: The Relevance of Polanyi's Thought.

Keith Hart. (Goldsmiths, University of London, New Cross, London, UK). Economic Revolutions are Always Monetary: Polanyi and the Breakdown of the Neoliberal World Economy.

Jean-Louis Laville. (Laboratoire interdisciplinaire pour la sociologie économique and Conservatoire National des Arts et Métiers, Paris, France). Towards a Theory of Plural Economy: in the Footsteps of Mauss and Polanyi.

11:00-11:15

Health Break

11:15-13:15

H-763

Session A: Polanyi and PEKEA: From Market to Societal Value (Simultaneous translation)

Chair: Michele Cangiani. (Università di Venezia, Venice, Italy).

Philippe Béraud (Ecole Nationale de Télécommunications de Bretagne, Brest, France) and Frank Cormerais. (Université de Nantes, Nantes, France). L'économie politique de la valeur sociale.

Sokhna Diouf Faye. (Université Cheikh Anta Diop de Dakar, Dakar, Sénégal). Le mouridisme face à l'économie de marché.

Michel Renault. (Centre de recherche en économie et management, Université de Rennes, Rennes, France). La négociation sociale en surplomb au marché: une approche transactionnelle de l'économie.

Tadasu Tsuruta. (University of Kinki, Osaka, Japan). Societal Political Economy in Practice: The Economy of Affection in Africa.

11:15-13:15

H-767

Session B: The Double Movement and Embeddedness. Critical Tools of Analysis (Simultaneous translation)

Chair: Bill Reimer. (Concordia University, Montréal, QC, Canada).

José Ricardo Barbosa Gonçalves and Maria Alejandra Caporale Madi. (State University of Campinas, São Paulo, Brazil). Social Life and Market Inclusion: Perspectives on Contemporary Brazil.

Geoff B. Goodwin. (PhD. Institute for the Study of the Americas, University of London, London, UK). Revisiting the Double Movement in the Age of Globalisation: the Case of Ecuador.

Giovanni Orlando. (Ph.D. Anthropology, Goldsmiths College, University of London, London, UK). 'Approaching Polanyi's Embeddedness through Complexity: an Example from Contemporary Western Sicily.

Pierre Joseph Ulysse. (Université de Montréal, Montréal, QC, Canada). La territorialisation de l'agir public: entre le marchand et le non-marchand.

13:15-14:15

Lunch– Hall Building, 12th Floor

Afternoon Sessions

14:15- 16:15

H-763

Session A: The Relevance of Karl Polanyi: National Contexts and International Cooperation (1) (Simultaneous translation)

Chair: Colin Duncan. (McGill University, Montréal, QC, Canada). [To be confirmed].

Po-keung Hui. (Lingnan University, Hong Kong). The Great Transformation that has never been – Rereading Polanyi through the Lens of the Hong Kong Cultural Economy.

Karen Bähr Caballero. (Université Catholique de Louvain, Louvain-La-Neuve, Belgique). Lutte contre la pauvreté et capacité d'action des femmes paysannes dans la longue durée: une discussion d'encastrement.

Eyüp Özveren, A.Yücel Özden and Ali Zeren. (Middle East Technical University, Ankara, Turkey). The Reception of Karl Polanyi's Work in Turkey.

David Austin. (Independent Researcher, Montréal, QC, Canada). Karl Polanyi and Africa.

14:15- 16:15

H-767

Session B: Karl Polanyi and the Double Movement. Re-embedding the Economy in Society or Institutionalizing a Disembedded Market Economy?

Chair: Daniel Salée. (Concordia University, Montréal, QC, Canada).

Fred Block. (University of California at Davis, California, USA). Polanyi's Double Movement. Power, Resources, and Social Movements.

Satoshi Ikeda (Concordia University, Montréal, QC, Canada). Emerging Local Sustainable Agriculture: A Polanyian Analysis of the Dis-commodification of Food and Re-creating the Embedded Economy in the 21st Century.

Hannes Lacher. (York University, Toronto, ON, Canada). Protectionism vs Embeddedness: Engaging Fred Block.

Gareth Dale. (Brunel University, London, UK). On Embeddedness and Decommodification: The 'hard' and the 'soft' Karl Polanyi.

16:30-18:45

H-763

Session A: Polanyi and Comparative Social Thought (2) (Simultaneous translation)Chair: Jacques T. Godbout. (INRS-Urbanisation, Montréal, QC, Canada).Thierry Amougou. (Université Catholique de Louvain, Louvain-La-Neuve, Belgium). *Fernand Braudel et Karl Polanyi: Apports, limites et complémentarités dans les études de développement au 21ème siècle.Geneviève Azam. (Université Toulouse II, Toulouse, France). *H. Arendt et K. Polanyi. Aux origines de la société de masse.Hans G. Despain. (Nichols College, Dudley, Massachusetts, USA). *The Neglect of Karl Polanyi in the History of Economic Thought: An Ontological Explanation.Daniel Tompkins. (Temple University, Philadelphia, USA). *Setting KP's Shade Spinning? Moses Finley, Karl Polanyi, and Aristotle.Mauro di Nicola. (PhD Candidate, School of Humanities, University of New England, New South Wales, Australia). Karl Polanyi as Epic Political Theorist: A Polanyian Conversation with Sheldon Wolin.

16:30-18:45

H-767

Session B: The Relevance of Karl Polanyi: National Contexts and International Cooperation (2) (Simultaneous translation)Chair: Peter Stoett. (Concordia University, Montréal, QC, Canada). [To be confirmed].Naci Canpolat. (Hacettepe University, Ankara, Turkey) and Hüseyin Özel, (Hacettepe University, Ankara, Turkey). *Institutional Reproduction of Capitalism: The Relevance of Polanyi for the Post-1980 Turkey.Joy Paton. (University of Sydney, Sydney, Australia). *Polanyian Pedagogy: Teaching Political Economy at the University of Sydney, Australia.Bernardo Stuhlberger Wjuniski. (Getulio Vargas Foundation, and Tendências Consultoria Integrada, Sao Paulo, Brazil) and Ramón García Fernández. (São Paulo School of Economics and Getulio Vargas Foundation, Sao Paulo, Brazil). *Polanyian Lessons for Our Days: The Case of Brazil.Jake Lowinger. (Ph.D. Candidate. Sociology, The Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Maryland, USA). *The Production of Economic Expertise in Post-Tito Yugoslavia.Olga Navarro-Flores. (Université du Québec a Montréal, QC, Canada). La notion d'encastrement et les théories institutionnalistes : comprendre le partenariat en coopération internationale.

18:45 – 19:00

H-767

Closing Remarks:Marguerite Mendell, Director, Karl Polanyi Institute of Political EconomyKari Polanyi Levitt, Honorary President, Karl Polanyi Institute of Political Economy